

FIREGROUND LEADERSHIP

Target Group:
Fire Service Officers.

Venue:
Kenya Airports Aviation Academy

Duration:
40 hours - 1 week

Fees:
US $ 285 for tuition and training materials per participant

OBJECTIVES

To hone the leadership skills of operational supervisors who will be involved in rescue and fire-fighting duties. Participants will also learn to consolidate command and communication skills of middle supervisors in managing challenging situations at the fire scene in both aviation and structural fire scenarios.

OUTLINE

Theory

Command and Responsibilities at the Fire ground

- Airport Fire & Rescue safety
- Airport Fire & Rescue Operations
- Human Factors
- Fire ground command and communication
- Fire ground strategy and tactics
- Fire service leadership

Practical

On-site Command, Coordination and Communications Exercise

- On-scene command and control
- Radio communications exercise
- Fire Case study

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- Be certified medically and physically fit
 - Proficient in the English language
 - Be in the supervisory position for at least one year
 - Have completed the Advanced Airport Fire-fighter course or its equivalent
 - Be competent to don and operate the Breathing Apparatus set
-